Business conditions are such and so many changes have taken place in the last few years that we deem this method of doing business best for both merchant and customer.

Nearly all lines of business now-a-days are conducted on a cash basis and the merchant with money to pay his bills promptly is the one who gets the goods and quick deliveries.

We take this method of notifying our friends of this change in our business so as to save any further embarrassment for either of us.

We appreciate the business which you have given us in the past and we hope you will continue to favor us with same.
